Y-12 Angling Party Catches Lots Of Fish—Also 'Freak' Photo; Double-Exposure Negative Picture Said 'One In Million' Shot

A few days ago a pair of Y-12's most enthusiastic fishermen, accompanied by the son of one of them, decided to try their luck over at the Center Hill Lake near Cookeville. Like most anglers who desire to bring home some proof of their catches—if any—the party took along a camera to record their efforts.

In this particular case, however, it was the picture they brought back and not the fish that makes news. Shown above is the "one in a million"—or maybe even more odds, photograph made by the group, consisting of L. O. Huitting, Product Processing; E. R. Easterday, Maintenance Shops; and the latter's son, Bill.

The "freak" picture is a double-exposure, an occurrence common to amateur photographers that generally results in a completely jumbled and unrecognizable print. Not this one, however.

Here's how it happened.

After the trio had bagged a fine collection—four strings—of large mouth bass they retired to the bank to make their pictures. Huitting first took the camera and snapped the Easterdays with two strings of fish. Then Bill Easterday took the camera—and either he or Huitting forgot to wind the film spool to the next exposure. Huitting then posed with another two strings of bass, not particularly picking any especial spot on the bank locale they had picked for the photography.

None of the trio noticed the failure to turn the film spool—until the roll had been developed and printed. Then they just regarded the small print as an unfortunate mistake and almost forgot about the whole thing.

However, Huitting brought some individual pictures of the best fish caught to the Y-12 Recreation and The Bulletin office one day last week and the "freak" picture caught the eye of the staff. An enlarged print was made from the

William J. Priestly, UCC Vice President; Receives Lehigh University Alumni Award 'Extraordinary Achievements' In Metallurgy And Leadership In Great Corporation Cited

William J. Priestley, Vice-President and Director of Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation, was honored on June 5 by the Alumni Association of Lehigh University with the Lehigh Alumni Award, the highest award conferred by the Association. This honor was accorded Priestley "In recognition of extraordinary achievements in ferrous and non-ferrous metallurgy, and of significant services as an iron and steel plant operator; in tribute to his leadership as an executive of one of the world's great chemical and metallurgical corporations; and in appreciation of his having contributed of his time, of his substance, and by his example to the advancement of the welfare and enhancement of the prestige of his alma mater."

Priestley was graduated from Lehigh University with the degree of Mechanical Engineer in the class of 1908. After distinguished service in the steel industry he joined the Corporation in 1923 as a consulting metallurgist for Electro Metallurgical Company. In 1932 he became Vice-President in charge of Sales Development. He was elected President of Electro Metallurgical Company in 1944.

Priestley became a Vice-President of Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation in 1945 and was elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation in 1948.

Campbell, Hamrick Named By Red Cross

James E. Campbell, of the Y-12 Personnel Department, was elected chairman of the Oak Ridge Chapter of the American Red Cross last Thursday night; and Paschal Hamrick, of Employment, was named vice chairman of the chapter at the same meeting. Campbell succeeds Leo Grant as head of the local organization.

In addition to being elected vice chairman of the chapter, Hamrick was presented with a Citation For Service by the American National Red Cross for his work as chairman of the fund campaign drive by the local chapter this year. Under his direction, the sum of $29,247.98 was raised for chapter and national activities. The Oak Ridge quota for the campaign was $25,019.

Other Y-12ers elected to the board of directors of the chapter for three-year terms were George W. Flack, a former chairman of the chapter; Hamrick as vice chairman; and W. S. Herron. The other directors named last week include Paul Arow, Mrs. Ross Charles, Mrs. James A. Cox, George H. Demros, Mrs. William English, Leo W. Grant, Carl Jeffries, T. E. Lane, the Rev. P. F. McGregor, Sam Miller, Mrs. R. F. Millsaps, Donald D. Roe, W. C. Rothermel and Mrs. E. O. Wollan.

The Canadian Mines Department will send out 175 survey parties in 1953 to search for uranium and iron ore and oil in the dominion.

Y-12 Driving Permits Being Distributed

Distribution of Atomic Energy Commission Motor Vehicle Operator's Permits to Y-12ers driving Government passenger automobiles or trucks was begun this week in the Y-12 Plant area. The permits are prepared by the Safety Department, then are turned over to Divisional Heads who in turn pass them on to driving employees through Supervision.

To receive the new permits, otherwise eligible Y-12ers must have obtained their Tennessee State Driver's License for the two-year period beginning July 1, 1953. This is an absolute "must" for all drivers of Government vehicles.

The Tennessee State Driver's Licenses may be obtained in Oak Ridge at the Oak Ridge office of Anderson County Clerk Lloyd C. Blackwood, located in Town Hall. They also may be purchased at the Anderson County Court House at Clinton, the Firestone Store in Lake City, the hardware store at Norris and also at Oliver Springs. For Knox County residents the licenses are on sale at the Knox County Court House, the Sears store, Fountain City Hardware Co., Burlington Fire Hall and the Tennessee State Highway Patrol office on Kingston Pike. Y-12ers living in other counties may obtain the licenses at the county court clerk's office in the county court house.

Distribution of the Government Motor Vehicle Operator's Permits in Y-12 is being made on an alphabetical basis. Employees with last names beginning with letters A through D will receive their permits before July 1. Those in the E through J bucket will get their permits before August 1, the K through P group before September 1 and the Q through Z group before October 1. The current permits expiring on July 1 held by Y-12 drivers will be good until officially renewed in the plant.

CITIZENS ARE COOL

The Las Vegas, Nev., Review Journal reports that residents of St. George, Utah, who were kept indoors several hours after some atomic "fall out" was reported following a recent atomic test, remained completely calm and undisturbed.

Y-12 Office Handling All Hospitalization

All matters pertaining to hospitalization and surgical insurance for Y-12 employees now is being handled directly through the Y-12 Insurance and Compensation Office, Bldg. 9701-1, North Portal, telephone 7382. All records and files of Y-12ers covered by the hospitalization insurance now are in the plant office instead of being maintained at K-25, as in the past.

The new step is expected to prove of considerable convenience to Y-12ers who have such coverage. Claims and benefits now can be handled directly through the Y-12 Insurance Office.

All hospitals in the East Tennessee area in which the vast majority of Y-12ers reside have been notified of the change in hospitalization claim handling. All Y-12 employees also are requested to be sure and inform hospital authorities, if hospitalization or surgical care is required, to send claims directly to the Y-12 Insurance and Compensation Department for action.

The following Y-12 employees were patients in the Oak Ridge Hospital last week.

Lyman C. Hale and Hillyard G. Dyer, Uranium Processing; Ralph W. Pickett, Maintenance Shops; Henry Moore, Field Maintenance; George W. Boggs, Guard; Floyd Ray, Buildings and Grounds; Bessie G. McKeithan, Mary Patterson and Arbana Honeycutt, Laundry; P. G. Herndon, Planning and Estimating; Lucille Simpson and Bertha Craige, Janitors.

Art Center Names Carbide Personnel To Several Posts

Several Carbide employees in the Y-12 Plant area were elected to office for the coming year at a recent meeting of the Oak Ridge Community Art Center. The group now is making plans for its second annual Beaux Arts Ball and all Y-12ers and other artists interested in painting or drawing classes or enjoy art are invited to join the Center by communicating with the membership chairman, Mrs. C. S. Shoup, Oak Ridge telephone 5-4086.

Officers elected by the center include A. Zucker, Carbide, president; G. Fredrickson, vice president; B. Strehler, Carbide, treasurer, and Mrs. A. B. Gomez, secretary. Committee chairmen named were Mrs. M. Brucer, bulletin; G. Gilliam, building maintenance; D. Binder, education; Mrs. A. Hollaender, wife of a Carbide employee in the Y-12 Plant area, and Mrs. R. W. Stoughton, exhibition co-chairmen; Mrs. C. S. Shoup, membership; Mrs. E. P. Epler, program; Mrs. B. L. Cohen, Carbide, assisted by Mrs. A. B. Gomez, publicity; Mrs. S. S. Kirsalis, social.

Two Boys State Citizens Write Of Experiences; Another Y-12er's Son Attended Meet

By Richard A. Bowman

Monday, June 15, 1953, was "going home day" for 400 Volunteer Boys State boys, who, like myself, left behind many friends won in just a week. During that same period of time we gained much experience and knowledge in our work at Boys State, held at Castle Heights Military Academy at Lebanon, Tenn.

To the American Legion and the different organizations, especially the Elks who sponsored me, I would like to send my heartiest thanks for making my trip to Boys State possible and a week to always remember.

Program Well-Rounded

We had just the right amount of work, study and play mixed together to give a well-rounded program.

As we know, Boys State is planned to inculcate a spirit of patriotic and civic responsibility and knowledge of government. During the week at Boys State we were given a course in how government is operated at different levels.

To give a brief view of our week's program—

Officials Are Elected

First, we divided into groups ranging from cities to state levels. There were 21 boys to a city and 42 to a county. Each city elected a mayor and city officials. Each county elected a county judge and he in turn appointed other members of the county court.

Then the state was divided into two major groups which were called the Jacksonians and the Johnsonians parties. Each party tried to get as many of their members in the state government as possible.

Elected County Judge

I was elected county judge of our county, which in turn made me chairman of the county court. Each officer and his assistant would get together to help make the program successful.

We had our athletic program which consisted of touch football, softball, basketball, tennis and volleyball. We also had a glee club, a band, track meet and swimming. Each boy could take part in only one sport.

I chose football and was elected captain of my team and played tailback. I also sang in the glee club.

Wish All Could Attend

I only wish that every boy in America could have the opportunity to attend Boys State so they could learn more about how our state government and county is organized and administered and the importance that he will play in our government in the near future.

Three Y-12 employees became fathers of babies born recently at the Oak Ridge Hospital. They are: Burl Price, Field Maintenance, girl, June 14.

Charles Muzzall, Product Processing, girl, June 15.

James F. Morehead, Steam Plant, boy, June 16.

Illinois Professor To Speak At Physics Seminar Meeting

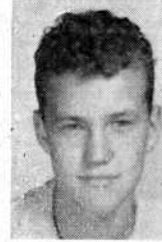

Prof. A. W. Overhauser, of the University of Illinois, will speak at the weekly meeting of the Oak Ridge Physics Seminar at 3:15 o'clock Friday afternoon, June 26. The session will be held in the auditorium of Bldg. 4500, Oak Ridge National Laboratory. Professor Overhauser will speak on "Problem of Polarizing Nuclei in Metals." Y-12 technical and scientific personnel interested in the subject are invited to attend the meeting.

Billy Ray German Represented Livingston

In The Bulletin of June 10 the selection of sons of two Y-12ers to attend Boys State at Lebanon, Tenn., was announced. Last week it was learned that still another Y-12er's son was picked for the honor. This lad was Billy Ray German, son of C. C. German, of Maintenance Shops. Young German was one of three boys representing Livingston, Tenn., High School at Boys State and he was sponsored by the Rotary Club of that city.

The Y-12 man and his family formerly lived in Oak Ridge, buying a home in Livingston about a year ago. The elder German lives in Oak Ridge during the work week, going home over week ends. While in Oak Ridge High School in 1950 and 1951, Billy Ray German was on the school track team and also played football. He is pursuing the same activities in Livingston and also is a private, first class, in the National Guard unit of that city.

Meanwhile, the two Oak Ridge youths who were sons of Y-12ers are writing of their experiences and impressions of Boys State in adjoining columns of this issue of The Bulletin. They are Howard N. Moon, Jr., whose father is in Uranium Processing, and Richard A. Bowman, son of Carl Bowman, of Research Services. Their accounts make interesting reading and reflect the seriousness with which they accepted their assignments to Boys State.

Our extremely safety-conscious contemporary publication, the Tennessee Eastman Corporation News, has this musical title tidbit for consideration. It is called "Sing While You Drive."

At 55 M.P.H., sing "I'm But A Stranger Here, Heaven Is My Home."

At 65 M.P.H., sing "When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder I'll Be There."

At 75 M.P.H., sing "Nearer My God To Thee."

At 85 M.P.H., sing "Lord, I'm Coming Home."

Well, here we go again, tattling on the other folks around the vicinity.

Wilbert Hamby, of Manufacturing Offices, and his family plan to start off this week's vacation by visiting a brother in Memphis—then back up to Kentucky for a short visit and back home to Clinton, for some fishing and rest before starting back to the salt mines . . . Irene Turner and her husband are visiting her folks in Charlottesville, Va., this week.

J. D. Bowers, of Property, and his family are vacationing in Washington, D. C., and in West Virginia for two weeks.

Receiving and Shipping is sorry to lose Sue Little, who terminated to join her husband, Harold K. Little, a former Y-12er, who is to be stationed in El Dorado, Tex., with the Air Force.

W. D. Hill, of Tools, is vacationing at home in Duff, Tenn., this week.

Jessie Bowens, of the Cafeteria, is spending two weeks of vacation with her mother in Alabama . . . The department extends congratulations to Bessie Roberts, a former co-worker, who is the proud mama of a baby girl born June 18.

The Guard Department extends get-well wishes to A. T. Barger, who is ill . . . There were no clues as to where Lt. J. H. Shoemaker, W. B. Davis, J. George and J. E. Jones spent last week's vacation. (Hear Chief Bradford is paging Mr. Keen, "the famous old investigator" of the radio.)

Margaret Adcock, of Security, and her husband, Bill, of Electrical Maintenance, with Bill's mother, Mrs. H. H. Adcock, and a sister, are visiting Margaret's folks in Texas while on two weeks of vacation—they plan to make a trip down to Old Mexico for some fishing on the Gulf.

Bonita Woods and Ollie Morris, of the Laundry, enjoyed their week of vacation, which they spent taking life easy . . . Get-well wishes are extended to Harry Tiller, who was on last week's ailing list.

M. C. Bays, of Stores, vacationed in Shreveport, La., last week . . . Woody Palmer and his wife planned to visit in St. Louis, Mo., last week . . . Wilma Hoskins is working on a good sun tan over at Myrtle Beach, S. C., this week . . . Lucia P. Shults and her husband, Capt. Dallas C. Shults, of the Guard Department, plan to see a lot of Florida, South Carolina and maybe Texas while vacationing this week . . . Folks get out your rain coats for J. D. McGuffin is off on vacation this week and it seems that it never fails to rain when he takes off to do a little fishing . . . C. H. Dixon and his wife, Cora, plan to visit relatives and friends in Dayton, Ohio, while on a week of vacation . . . Edd Webber and his family are visiting his sister in Johnson City—and a brother in Asheville, N. C., this week.

E. H. Steelman and E. H. Erickson, of Transportation, are vacationing this week at their respective homes in Harrison . . . It seems that "Old Colonel" Kendig gave Jake Seivers a bum steer as to where to find good fishing grounds so Seivers went the other way on that recent vacation.

The Property Sales Department extends congratulations to W. E. Powell, who is the proud papa of a baby girl . . . Congratulations also go to Floyd McClure, who has a new baby girl . . . Betty Sims, a former co-worker is the proud mama of a baby girl born June 6. Congratulations are extended to her . . . Len Pace has returned from a two-week vacation . . . R. V. Brackney and his family spent last week's vacation in New York.

Electrical Maintenance extends congratulations to T. J. Bradley, who is the proud father of a baby girl—little Janet Elaine was born June 10, at the Oak Ridge Hospital . . . The department welcomes E. J. Lewis, C. E. Robinson and E. A. Norris to the roster . . . Get-well wishes go to C. C. Sharp, who is on the ailing list . . . Charles W. Harpe's son, Pfc. Ronald G. Harpe, left June 19, for a nine-week training course of instruction in wheeled vehicle mechanics at Camp Breckinridge, Ky.

R. F. Farmer, of the Steam Plant, and his family are visiting with relatives in Akron, Ohio, this week.

Joe Williams, of the Development Division, and his family spent last week at Virginia Beach . . . The division welcomes John E. Perry and Wilanne Leftwich to the roster.

Louise Berry, of Technical Information, is attending the Special Library Association Conference at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto, Canada, this week.

Volunteer Boys State is a convention held annually at Castle Heights Military Academy for a select group of high school senior boys of the state of Tennessee. This convention is sponsored by the American Legion, and various other civic organizations of the state for the future betterment of the city, county, and state governments. These boys go to the convention with the intention of studying the different phases of their state and local governments. Understand Government Better

One of the things that helped me to understand better our governments was the division of the boys into different cities and counties. In each county there were two cities of 41 boys each. Each of these cities went through the procedures of electing the mayors, aldermen, and other city officials, and afterwards the cities met to elect their various county officials.

This year there were 409 boys at Castle Heights. Four of these boys were from Oak Ridge. They were Olin Morris, John Hagan, Dick Bowman, and myself. We registered at Castle Heights Monday, June 8, and were assigned to our various cities immediately. No two boys from the same school were assigned to the same city. In this way we had even more opportunities to make friends with boys from other parts of the state, which in my opinion was a major function of boys state.

Athletic Activities Staged

There were also athletic activities throughout the entire week. Each city had a team entered in the various tournaments which were run off. There was football, basketball, softball, volleyball, tennis and track teams from each city. There was also a physical fitness contest held in which each boy was graded upon his ability to jump, run, throw, and perform various other athletic skills.

I personally feel that I benefited very much from the experience that I gained at Boys State, and I would like to express my appreciation to the American Legion that made it possible for us to attend 1953 Volunteer Boys State.

The Assay Laboratory extends sympathy to Mona Rollins, whose father died last week . . . Bill Gore and his family were among the many Oak Ridgers vacationing at Miami Beach recently . . . Chester Fultz spent his week of vacation in North Carolina . . . Virginia Hill is dividing her vacation week between Charlotte, N. C., and Jacksonville, Fla. . . . CARDS CONQUER PEERLESS IN 1 TO 0 THRILLER

Y-12ers Also Top Ashe, K-25; Robins Rally With 15-1 Win

Big Red Team Play Whips State Champions; Johnson City Here For Saturday Night Tilt

The hustling, bustling Y-12 Cardinals got over their big hump of the season, through last Saturday night at least, when they trimmed the Tennessee state champions, the powerful Peerless Woolen Mills nine from Chattanooga—or Rossville, Ga.—in a 1 to 0 thriller. The plant varsity softball team added a pair of other triumphs to their string during the week—and also had an embarrassing night over at Clinton, recorded over in Column One of this page. Meanwhile, the Y-12 Robins, the plant's distaff contribution to the sport, came out of a slump last Friday night with a pounding 15 to 1 win over Parkmor, of Knoxville, after dropping a pair of tough ones earlier in the week.

The Cardinal win over Peerless was a team victory in every sense of the word. Bill Wilburn let the 'Noogans down with four bingles and got sparkling support from his mates. Lack of space prevents telling all the details of the fine defensive work of Ed Guy, Ralph Pearson, Kayo Montgomery and Gene Huskisson, from left to right around the infield, and to "Jiggs" Seivers, the hard-working catcher. The outfielders didn't have too much to do, but Walt Simmons, in left, made a sparkling catch and also contributed a throw that cut down a Peerless man at third. Bobby Loy and Tom Webber were right there and ready for emergencies that didn't come their way.

Collins Tough For Cards

The Cards were up against tough pitching, too. A skinny little guy named Ernie Collins, all-everything hurler for his team last year, showed a herky-jerky motion but lots of speed and control that matched Wilburn pitch for pitch. Collins fanned seven to Wilburn's four and allowed the Y-12ers only four bingles, two by Pearson.

The Y-12 run came in the fourth. Bobby Loy, bad ankle and all, shot a single into left. Dick Wyrick, a courtesy runner granted in fine sportsmanship by Peerless Manager Walter Lauter, scampered to second on Collins' only wild pitch, took third on Seivers' sacrifice and home on Simmon's long fly to deep left. That was all, but enough. Peerless got only one man around as far as third.

With that one out of the way, the Cards immediately started looking forward to this week's play. They were slated to meet Ashe Hosiery Mills in a Knoxville Invitational tournament game on Monday of this week, then play again Thursday if successful. The speedy Johnson City softies are scheduled for Oak Ridge Saturday night at 8 p.m. and if the Cards are lucky enough to reach the finals of the Knoxville event, also set for Saturday night, the latter engagement will be moved back. The second half of the season of the Knox-Ridge League is scheduled to open for the Cards at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday night, June 30, against the Oak Ridge Amvets at Midtown, No. 1. Then the Big Red will go to Knoxville Friday night, July 3, to play Bell Ave. Baptists at 7:30 p.m.

Meanwhile, the Robins are slated for a tilt over at Corryton Friday night, after scheduled games with Gus Green on Monday and Vestal on Tuesday of this week.

The Cards' other two victories last week were over Ashe Hosiery by 5 to 2 in the last game of the first half of the league season. They then coasted past K-25 in their opening Knoxville tournament appearance by 7 to 0.

Brother Versus Brother Feature

The Card-Ashe game featured the opposition of Bob Loy of Y-12 and his brother, Red, catcher for Ashe. Bob had the last laugh as he scored the run that put the Y-12ers ahead. Huskisson had a big night with a pair of singles, and consecutive steals of second, third

Y-12 SPORTS

Yanks, Cards (Y-12) Rue 'Black Tuesday' With Sad Defeats

Tuesday night, June 16, was a "Black Tuesday" for the New York Yankees—and the Y-12 Cardinals. It saw the proud and haughty Yanks whopped by the lowly St. Louis Browns to end a New York 18-game winning streak and a 14-game losing string by the Browns. The same night saw the Y-12 Cardinals humbled by an all-star aggregation over at Clinton under the colors of the Magnet Mills by the score of 6 to 0, breaking an 11-game string of wins.

The Cards were just plain and simply walloped by the Clintoners. The winners started out on Y-12 hurler Bill Wilburn like they owned him and before Bill could duck Clinton had tallied six times off eight hits. Then Morris Perry came to the rescue and blanked the Mills outfit for the rest of the way. Perry, incidentally, got the lone Y-12 safety, a single, off Stuart, who pitched a masterful game and had the Y-12 sluggers completely at bay.

The game was not a league contest for Y-12.

Line score follows:

Team	R	H	E
Y-12 Cardinals	000	000	0-0 1 0

and home that tied it up for the winners. Morris Perry, slim right hander for the Cards, won this one with a two-hitter and came back with a similar performance to blank the K-25 Blues.

The Robins started off last week with a 5 to 3 loss to Corryton and a 9 to 4 defeat by Vestal. The Corryton lassies got a five run burst in the first and were never headed. Vestal took advantage of seven Y-12 miscues and 11 walks by Ella Mae Koontz to romp in. However, the Robins got their dander up Friday night and blasted the Parkmor outfit for their 15 to 1 triumph. Velma Soard allowed Parkmor only seven hits while her mates got 15, including two homers, a triple and two singles by Bonnie Roberts.

Line scores of Y-12 varsity games last week follow:

Dodgers Defeat Park City 8-3

The Y-12 Dodgers, the plant's crack Negro baseball team, took the Park City Cubs, of Knoxville, to the cleaners last Sunday afternoon by the score of 8 to 3. The game was played at the Leslie St. Park in Knoxville.

The Dodgers' Johnson held the home club to two hits and whiffed 14 in racking up an easy triumph. Swans hit a homer for Y-12 in the third, Gallaher contributed a triple and Moseley a double as the winners went out in front in the third inning and were never headed.

Shotts Tops Hitters In Plant League

The ten leading hitters in the Y-12 Plant Softball League in the first half of the season follows:

Shotts — ADP	560
Thomas — Engineers	500
Whitehorn — Peons	483
Johnson — ADP	467
Smyrl — UCJV	461
Brooks — UCJV	435
McAdams — Engineers	329
Thurman — 49ers	421
Choate — Engineers	421
Church — UCJV	416

These hitters all have been at bat more than 15 times during the first half of the season.

Recreation Loop Resumes Thursday

The second half of the season schedule in the Oak Ridge Class B Recreation League of softballers will get underway Thursday night of this week at Midtown Park. However, the schedule of play will not be determined until a meeting set for Monday night of this week. No games were played last week.

Manager Avery Kendig's Y-12 Woodpeckers tied for first place in the opening half of the schedule with the Kaighan and Hughes outfit. The two teams will meet later for the title, the winner to play the second half victors.

Plant League Players Eye Second Half Of Season Slate

Only Scattering Of Rained Out Games Remain In First Round; 49ers Have Unbeaten Record

With only a scattering of rained out games to be made up all Y-12 Plant League softballers are looking toward the second half of the season. The final round is scheduled to begin next Monday, June 29.

The front running 49ers got in only one game last week and subdued the Colts 11 to 2. Thurman came through with three hits for the 49ers, including one of the longest home runs of the year. Gardner swatted a four bagger for the improving Colts.

Peons Split Even

The second place Peons won over Plant Protection 17 to 7 and lost to Uranium Control Junior Varsity, which earned an 11 to 7 win. In the game with Plant Protection Haun and Law limited the losers to five hits and Gallimore was the leading hitter with three bingles. Wright marked up two hits for the losers. In the game with UCJV Bailey limited the Peons to seven hits. UCJV took a two run lead in the second inning and held on throughout the tussle. Hamil and Brooks led the winners with three hits each. Whitehorn and Wollan got two hits each for the Peons.

The Engineers split a pair during the action last week, winning over UCJV 5 to 1 and losing to Plant Protection 4 to 3. Joe Kidd hurled a five hitter against UCJV and Be Ment clouted a homer for the winners. Church swatted a four master for the losers. Plant Protection scored two runs in the fifth inning to overcome the lead held by the Engineers. Moore and Sykes had two hits each for Plant Protection.

Home Runs Prevail

In the other contest of the week ADP spanked Maintenance 13 to 10. Byrd had four hits and Rains slammed a homer to lead ADP to victory. Jones, Maintenance shortstop, clouted two home runs for the losers.

Pistol Team Of Y-12 To Fire In Nashville

Although realizing they will be up against some of the state of Tennessee's best pistol shots, the Y-12 pistol team will invade Nashville next Sunday, June 28, to fire in the state tournament. The Y-12ers are Oak Ridge champions and also won a recent mail tournament in the state. On their past record, the Y-12ers stand a chance to make an excellent showing in the state meet.

Making the trip to Nashville to represent Y-12 will be Capt. Harry Hoy, J. K. Bair, champion Oak Ridge shot; J. D. Kingston, J. C. Ezell and Garfield Huddleston, a former national pistol champion. They will fire both .22 and .38 calibre contests.

In recognition of their fine work during the past season, handsome cardinal and white jackets have been awarded members of the team. Among the recipients are Hoy, Bair, Kingston, Ezell, V. O. Haynes, M. E. LaVerne, W. M. Stephen, P. A. Williams, T. J. Bush and John Gallimore.

Bloopers Of K-25 Defeat Orioles

A short-handed Y-12 slow pitch softball team that saw Manager Elmore Koons forced to don the catching togs himself was trimmed by the K-25 bloopers last week by the score of 13 to 9. The loss was the second in the first half of the season for the Y-12 Orioles, who have won four contests.

The Orioles are slated to meet the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies team at 8 o'clock tonight, Wednesday, June 24, at Midtown No. 1 field. It will be the last game of the first half of the season schedule.

Line score of the Oriole-K-25 tilt follows:

Means, Blake Will Assist Staging Playhouse Thriller

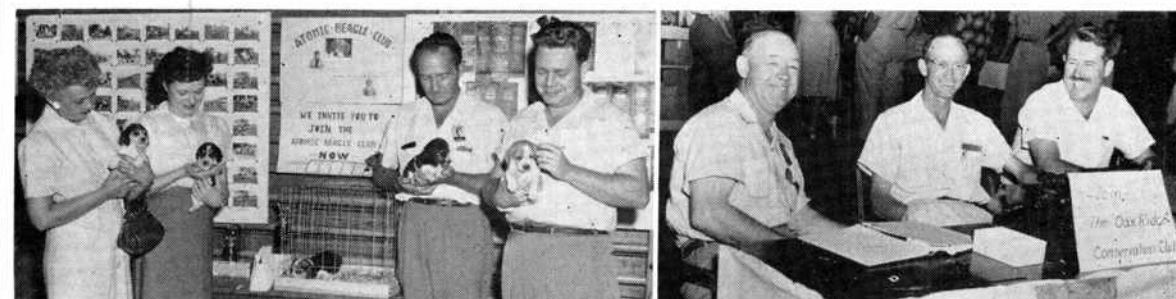

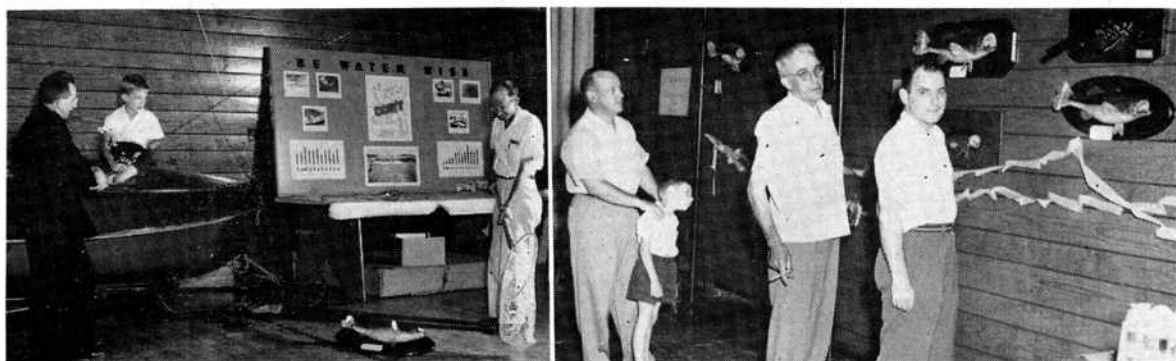

Evan Means, of the Y-12 Electrical Maintenance Department, will share the work of production manager with Charley Blake, also a Carbide employee in the Y-12 Plant area; in the presentation of the Oak Ridge Community Playhouse's annual melodrama, "Ten Nights In A Bar Room." The old time popular play will be staged in three three-night stands at the Oak Terrace ball room, the first run beginning tomorrow night, Thursday, June 25, and extending through Saturday night. The offering will be repeated July 2, 3 and 4 and again on July 9, 10 and 11.

Wife Of Y-12er Elected To Carbide Wives Board

Mrs. W. B. Tyree, wife of a Y-12er in Maintenance Shops, was among the five women elected as members of the executive board of the Carbide Wives last week. Others elected were Mesdames M. L. Angel, Jr., A. E. Bittner, N. H. Hurd and Joseph E. Porter, all of whose husbands work for K-25.

The election was held at the June meeting and card party of the organization. The theme of the party was "Going On A Picnic" and decorations were picnic supplies, awarded later as prizes in bridge and canasta. Tally sheets were in the form of a map of Tennessee with state parks, popular picnic sites, highlighted.

Motorists and pedestrians should watch for cars turning even if they do have the right of way.

Y-12ERS AND MEMBERS OF THEIR FAMILIES WERE ENTERTAINED AND INSTRUCTED on facts of outdoor life at the recent Outdoor Show and Fishing Seminar staged by the Oak Ridge Conservation League, of which all the officers are Y-12 employees. In the top strip of pictures, at left Gus Angele, Engineering, coaches his son on how to cast to catch a "big one," as L. K. Flynn, Buildings and Grounds, stands by with a landing net. In the picture at the right George Ferrell, Maintenance Shops, young Angele, L. R. Fisher and H. B. Pruden, Electrical Maintenance, admire fishing trophies caught by Ferrell, E. R. Easterday, Electrical Maintenance, and Hubert Myers, Buildings and Grounds. In the lower left picture Mrs. W. K. Forrester and Mrs. Russell Hopper, whose husbands are in Maintenance Shops; Tom Hart, Alloy Division; and Howell Simerly, ADP; pet some Beagle pups exhibited by the Atomic City Beagle Club, of which Hart is a member. At lower right are three of the league officers, from left being E. E. Johnson, Planning and Estimating, secretary; Flynn, treasurer; and Evan Means, Electrical Maintenance, president. Vice President H. O. Finley, Assay Laboratory, was absent when picture was made.

Borrowing a phrase from another well-known columnist—"putting one word after another"—and what became of the doggie in the window? Interested Y-12ers might ask Tom Burkett, the debonaire parson of Personnel, for the answer. He has the doggondest dog story of the week.

Come up and see us sometime. S'tong.

REAL OLD MAN FOUND

The Washington Post says Dr. T. Dale Stewart, curator of physical anthropology of the Smithsonian Institution, confirms that the age of the "Tepexpan Man" has been established at about 11,000 years, according to radioactive carbon dating.

negative and the unique character of the picture was unfolded.

Of course, the unique angle of the picture is the fact that the exposure by Bill Easterday caught Huitting right in the middle of the other two fishermen caught in the first exposure made by Huitting. Even more remarkable is the clearness of the background and the foreground—notice the foliage and grass.

Experienced photographers who have seen the print have declared that the odds against Huitting and Bill Easterday standing in the same spot and holding the camera in the same position to make the two snaps are at least "one million to one," without a tripod or solid base of some kind—which definitely was not used.

The camera used belonged to Huitting—and was a 15-year-old Eastman box camera generally known as a "Brownie." It had no focussing or shutter speed adjustment, and, according to the owner, it had been patched up, reglued and taped several times during its life—but still made good pictures. The "freak" picture was made about 5 p.m. with cloudless skies and a bright sun.

So—Mr. Ripley—you better move over for this photographic phenomenon:

Chippers Pull Upset In Golf Playoff Tilt

The Y-12 Golf League first place team in the first half of the season, the Rippers, were beaten in the first round of the Shaughnessy playoff for the loop title last week by the Chippers by the score of 22 to 14. The victory will place the Chippers against the winner of a match between the Hooks and Rough Riders for the first half title. Because of vacation schedules this match probably will be played within the next few days, anyhow before June 29.

Carl Dorr led the Chippers to their triumph over the Rippers with a 35. Jake Burchfield paced the Rippers with a 37.

The finals in the playoff must be played before July 4. Another tournament for all Y-12 golfers somewhat similar to the "high-low" event of a few weeks ago, will be played on July 4.
